

February 2009

This spring, some 1,200 seniors from Senior, West, and Skyview high schools will leave their graduation ceremonies with diplomas and big dreams. Alcohol-free, drug-free celebrations at their schools will keep them safe from tragedy the rest of the night. Under close supervision, graduates will enjoy food, games, music, and photo sessions – and win great prizes (from gift certificates and savings bonds to backpacks and DVDs).

These celebrations — a 25-year tradition to keep students safe and show them we’re proud — are paid for almost entirely by donations from businesses and individuals. We need your help to continue the tradition this year.

Our goal is substantial: we aim to raise some $40,000 in donations of cash and merchandise, to be prorated to the high schools based on the donation value and each school’s number of graduating seniors. Your donation in any amount will help us succeed, creating memories our graduates will cherish for a lifetime.
